PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

1

Special Condition # 14: The defendant shall complete 100 hours of community service work as directed by the supervising probation officer at a not-for-profit site approved in advance by the supervising officer. The hours are to be completed in full as directed by the supervising officer.

Supporting Evidence: Elizabeth St. John is considered in violation of her term of probation by failing to comply with her community service hours as directed by her supervising probation officer.

Ms. St. John was required to complete 100 hours of community service as directed by her probation officer. At the time of her probation intake, the defendant agreed to complete no less than 10 hours per month in order to finish her hours before March 2012. Ms. St. John was to complete her community service hours with Habitat for Humanity in Pasco, Washington. Ms. St. John began her hours in October 2011, at which time she completed 4 hours. The defendant advised this officer she would complete a large portion of her hours during her winter break from school. Ms. St. John completed 12 hours during the month of January 2012. At this time, the defendant has completed a total of 16 community service hours and has 84 hours remaining. Her term of probation is set to expire on April 13, 2012. Ms. St. John stated she does not believe she can complete the hours with the remaining term of probation.
